Itinerary

Day 1: Xi'an City –Mount Hua – Xi'an City

You will be picked up at your hotel in Xian. Drive 120km (75 miles) east of Xian and get to the foot of [Mount Hua]. Mount Hua is one of China's five holy mountains, or called Western Mountain (Xiyue) due to its geographical location in relation to the others.

It is famed as the most precipitous of the five. It is the highest among the five great mountains. Mount Hua is situated to the south of Huayin County, 120 kilometers east of Xi'an City. Mount Hua is literally translated as Flower Mountain. It has an elevation of 2200 meters above sea level.

After the tour, you are transferred back to your hotel in Xi'an. The day tour ends when back to the hotel.
